

Index

- Abington v. Schempp*, 24, 46, 153, 165 abortion, teaching controversy over, 193–194 absolutism of religions, overcoming, 196–197 abstinence from sex, teaching, 190–191, 195 academic freedom, vs. required neutrality, 26 accommodation of parental requests, 21–22, 178
Ackland Art Museum Project, 93–94
Adams, E. M., 136
Adams, John, 89
administrators, pitfalls faced by, 27
African American history, importance of religion to, 89
African American religions, and nature, 150
AFT, 36
age-appropriateness of instruction, 177 alienation of modern man, 125 allegiance, as issue in civics, 103–104
American Association of School Administrators, 36
 statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18
American Center for Law and Justice, statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18
American culture, critiques of, 199*n*
American history, and Biblical studies, 83–85
American Jewish Congress, 36
American Textbook Council, 78
“A Model of Christian Charity” (Winthrop), 83, 84
Anthropic Principle, 145
Anti-Defamation League, statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18
Arabella (ship), 83, 99
art(s)
 controversy over definition of, 130
 as dimension of religion, 49–50
 diversity of religious approaches to, 123–124 guidelines for teaching, 130–132
 issues in, 120–126
 learning about religion through, 93–94 modern historical context of, 125
 meaning of, 124
 as world without God, 125
 as moral exercise, 184
 popular, insidiousness of, 125–126
 and religion, 117, 132*n*–133*n*
 as revelation, 121–123
 secularization of, 131, 132*n*
 teaching resources for, 76*n*
 standards for, 119–120
 as window on religion, 51
artistic performances, religious, constitutionality of, 129
Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development (ASCD), 16, 36 guidelines for study of religion, 47
 information on, 211
atheism, development of, 180*n* authority of state, as issue in civics, 103–104 balanced treatment laws, 48–49, 159

Barrett, William, 125
Bellah, Robert, 39, 198
benefits, of religion in schools, 16
Berry, Thomas, 149
Bhagavad Gita, 127
bias, in teacher’s presentations of religion, 44–45, 55
Bible in historical context, teaching, 171 as history, 80–82
 inerrancy of, 139
 interpretation of, 123 literary criticism of, 90
 as literature, 126–129
 and modern secular scholarship, 170 in moral education, 190

- and secondary sources, 170
- study of, 24, 67, 69, 164–165
- unmediated reading of, 169–170
- version of, as issue, 168–169
- Bible courses
 - issues related to, 167–168
 - required, 171
 - types of, 167–168
- big bang theory, and theology, 144–148
- Bill of rights, and multiculturalism, 87–88
- biology, and evolution, 141–144
- birth control, teaching of, 193
- Boyer, Ernest, 17, 28
- Bradley Commission on History in the Schools, 65
- Brennan, William, 47, 153, 154, 165
- Bryan, William Jennings, 141
- Buber, Martin, 152
- Buddhism
 - creation in, 146
 - emphasized dimensions in, 50
- California County Superintendents Educational Services Association, 91
- California public schools, 32–33
 - founding of, 84
 - history/social science framework for, 65, 78
 - religions studies in, 65
 - 3 Rs projects, 91–92
- capitalism, as issue in economics, 112
- Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, 17
- Centesimus Annus* (John Paul II), 112
- certification, need for, in religious studies field, 45
- “Character Education Manifesto,” 183
- character education movement, 183, 192
- Character Education Partnership, address of, 200n
- Children of the Rainbow* curriculum, 194
- Christian Coalition, statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18
- Christian Educators Association International, statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18
- Christianity
 - concept of nature in, 148–151
 - coverage of, in textbooks, 88–89
 - and creation, 146, 162n
 - emphasized dimensions in, 50
 - Kingdom of God as goal of, 102
- Christian Legal Society, statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18
- Christian Realism, 90
- Christians, diversity in, 173
- Christmas
 - celebrations of, balancing with Hanukkah, 72
 - concerts at, recommendations on, 71
 - conflicts in schools over, 61
 - cultural celebrations of, 72
- Citizens for Excellence in Education, statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18
- civic reasons for teaching religion, 67–68, 166–167
- civics
 - goal of education in, 105
 - issues in, 99–104, 104–105
 - teaching religion in, 97–105
- civic virtues, teaching of, 185
- civil public schools, 16–27
 - characteristics of, 33
 - classroom examples of, 30–32
 - differences from multiculturalism, 87–88
 - implementation of, 30, 203–204
 - as tough sell, 27
- civil rights movement, importance of religion to, 89
- Civil War, religious conceptions of, 85
- Clark, Tom, 2–3, 24, 47, 165
- classrooms
 - students’ expressions of religion in, 20
 - use of religious symbols in, 70–71
- Clinton, William Jefferson, 21
 - directive on religion in public schools, 19–20

- coercion of others, 20
- Cohen, Barbara, 74
- Columbia University Press, 93
- common ground between religions, need for, 28–30
- common school movement, 169
- communities of memory, 39
- community
 - including in consensus, 30, 33
 - in celebrating holidays, 72
 - locating common ground in, 28–29
- compelling interests of schools, and religious freedom, 21–22
- competence of teachers to teach religion, 55
- competition
 - economic, as virtue, 110
 - social issues of, 106
- conceptions of history, study of, 83–84
- conceptual nets, 134–135
- concerts at Christmas, recommendations on, 71
- conscience, freedom of, as political ideal, 100
- consensus
 - importance of, in celebration of holidays, 72
 - on values, 185–188
 - involving community in, 33
- conservatives
 - and Establishment Clause, 101–102
 - and fear of secular humanism, 6
 - vs. liberals (See liberals vs. conservatives)
- Constitution of United States. See also First Amendment; Supreme Court
 - beliefs of framers, 7
 - on classes in religion, 164–165
 - and legality of religion in schools, 9
 - restraints on science education, 153–155
- consumerism, as issue in economics, 108, 110–111
- contemporary United States, understanding religion in, 98
- context of differing views, importance of presenting, 159
- controversy
 - defusing of, 1
 - fear of, as deterrent, 69
- Copernicus, 135
- core knowledge approach, 66–67
- Core Knowledge curriculum, problems with, 69
- Core Knowledge Foundation, 67
- Core Knowledge Sequence (Hirsch), 66
- cosmology, and theology, 144–148
- cost-benefit analysis, amorality of, 109–110
- Council on Islamic Education, statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18
- courses in religion, 164
- Crabtree, Charlotte, 65
- creation, 145. See also big bang; origin of universe
 - continuing, 146–147
 - ex nihilo*, 146
 - and science, 136
 - in various religions, 146
- creationism
 - absence of, in textbooks, 144
 - history of, 162*n*
 - as issue, 158–159
- Creation Research Society, 137
- creative destructiveness of markets, 108
- creativity, as issue in arts, 124
- critical thinking, nurturing of, 52
- criticism of religions, 52–53
- cultural ballast, religion as, 39
- cultural determination of science, 139
- cultural diversity, standards on, 118
- cultural weight of differing views, importance of presenting, 49, 159
- culture(s)
 - American, secularization of, 6–7
 - conflicts in, 34*n*
 - of irony, in United States, 125
 - vs religion, 87–88
 - various, importance of understanding, 48

- culture studies, as new discipline, 121
- culture wars
 - over religion, 1
 - history of, 4–5
 - and religion in schools, 17
- Culture Wars* (Hunter), 5
- curriculum
 - Core Knowledge Sequence (Hirsch), 66
 - exclusion of religion, reasons for, 5–8
 - inclusion of religion, reasons for, 166
 - locating religion in, 44–46
 - as moral choice, 182–183
 - New Consensus and, 36–37
 - uncritical assumptions in, 41
- Curriculum Standards for the Social Sciences* (NCSS, 1994), 63–64
- dangers of religion in schools, 15–16, 27, 28
- Darwin, Charles, 140–144
- Darwinism
 - alternatives to, 143
 - and religion, 163*n*
 - social, 141
- debate
 - importance of, 88
 - respectful, 29, 31–32
- December dilemma, 61, 69–70, 71–72
- declarations of faith, policy on, 75
- Delbanco, Andrew, 125
- democracy, as consensus value, 186
- denigration of religion, 18
 - and Constitution, 27
- Department of Education, 19
- depth of treatment, as issue in world religions course, 172
- design in the universe, 145
- determinism, 135
- dimensions of religion (Smart), 49–50
- dimensions of religious experience, as issue in world religions course, 172–173
- disagreements, teaching nature of, in liberal education, 188
- disciplines, vs. subjects, in public schools, 41–42
- disestablishment, 101
- distribution of literature in schools, legality of, 20
- diversity of religions
 - and fairness, 47–49
 - internal, as issue in courses, 173
 - remaining aware of, 197
 - taking seriously, 49
- Dixon, John, 121
- doctrine, as dimension of religion, 49–50
- Easter, cultural celebrations of, 72
- Eastern religions, and nature, 150
- Eck, Diana, 93
- ecofeminist theologians, 150
- ecology. See also nature
 - and religion, 150–151, 163*n*
 - and Western values, 148–151
- economic growth, as issue in economics, 111
- economics
 - as driving force in curriculum, 182
 - guidelines for teaching, 113
 - justice and, 116*n*
 - major issues in, 107–113
 - and religion, 115*n*
 - status of, as discipline, 109
 - teaching religion and, 105–114
- economic vs. religious perspectives, 109–110
- eco-theology, 148–151
- ecumenicalism, 54
- Eddington, Arthur, 40, 134
- educated people, characteristics of. See liberal education
- education
 - as indoctrination, 42–44

- vs. indoctrination or training, 184–185
- moral (See moral education)
- for teachers, in religious studies, 55–57
- true nature of, 43
- Edwards v. Aguillard*, 153
- Eleanor of Aquitaine, 89
- elementary school
 - appropriate religious topics for, 62, 66–67
 - case for teaching religion in, 62–68
 - students' ability to understand religion in, 64–67
- Eliot, T. S., 125
- empathy
 - informed, in understanding religions, 50–51, 86, 175–176
 - in public policy issues, 104
 - vs. sympathy, 50
- Enlightenment, effect of, 109, 122
- environment, as issue in economics, 111
- environmental crisis, theological responses to, 150–151
- Epperson v. Arkansas*, 153
- Equal Access Act (1984), 20
- equal time, necessity of, 48
- equity, in presenting religions and non-religion, 8, 9
- Establishment Clause of Constitution, 101–102. See also freedom of religion
 - neutrality as essence of, 18–19
 - Supreme Court interpretation of, 24
- ethics
 - courses in, 183
 - as dimension of religion, 49–50
- Eurocentrism, 87
- European history texts, coverage of religion in, 78–79
- Everson v. Board of Education* (1947), 18, 101
- evolution, 5
 - biology and, 141–144
 - as divinely guided, 162*n*
 - as issue, 112
 - laws prohibiting teaching of, 153
 - theological acceptance of, 141–143
- excusal from instruction, 21–22, 178
- existentialism, effect on theology, 124
- existential questions, importance of addressing, 37–38
- experiencing religions, as important learning experience, 50–51

- fairness
 - in balance of science and religion, 156–157
 - and diversity, 47–49
 - and liberal education, 35
- faith
 - definition of, 3
 - policy on declarations of, 75
- faith groups, information on, 76*n*, 95*n*
- fall from grace, liberal rejection of, 141–142
- Finding Common Ground: A First Amendment Guide to Religion and Public Education* (Haynes and Thomas), v
- First Amendment Center, Vanderbilt University, 16–17, 91, 92, 94
 - information on, 210
 - statement on religion in schools, 19
- First Amendment to Constitution
 - Establishment Clause of, 101–102
 - neutrality as essence of, 18–19
 - Supreme Court interpretation of, 18–19
 - Free Exercise clause of, 19
 - religious liberty clauses of (See freedom of religion)
 - schools as training ground in, 88
- Five Faiths Project, 93–94
- foreign policy, and imposition of Western ideals, 103
- Fortas, Abe, 153, 154
- Fox, Matthew, 149
- freedom of religion
 - application of, confusing regarding, 15–16
 - discussions of, in class, 31–32
 - guiding principles of, 29
 - and liberal state, as issue, 99–100
 - limits of, 88

- meaning of, 8
 - origins of, 99–100
 - practical articulation of, 17
 - and rights of students, 19–21
 - taking seriously, importance of, 15–16
- Free Exercise Clause, 19
- free speech issues, and religious freedom, 22
- functional religions, 3
- future, warnings regarding, 17

- Galileo, 140
- gays, teaching about controversy over, 193
- Genesis*, as literature, 128
- genetic engineering, as issue, 152
- Georgia 3 Rs project, 92
- gestalt, and empathy for religions, 50–51
- God
 - conception of, in various religions, 2–3
 - in founding of United States, 99
 - nature of, as issue in world religions course, 175
- God and the Astronomers* (Jastrow), 144
- Goldberg, Arthur J., 24–25, 47
- Golden Rule of civil life (Williamsburg Charter), 68
- Gould, Stephen Jay, 142
- government, and religion, Jewish perspective on, 115*n*
- graduation, school prayer at, 20–21
- graven images, in various religions, 123–124
- Great Awakening, importance of studying, 89
- growth, as issue in economics, 111
- guest speakers, value of, 74–75
- guiding principles of religious liberty, 29

- Hanukkah, as balance for Christmas celebrations, 72
- Harvard Divinity School, 93
- Harvard University, Pluralism Project at, 93
- Hawking, Stephen, 145
- health, as spiritual issue, 152–153
- Hinduism
 - creation in, 146
 - diversity in, 173
 - emphasized dimensions in, 50
- Hirsch, Jr., E. D., 66
- historical development of religions, as issue in world religions course, 174
- histories of religion, 95*n*–96*n*
- history. See also United States history
 - importance of religion to, 38–39
 - insights gained from, 187
 - making religion a real component of, 77
 - of marketplace, as issue in economics, 107–108
 - Puritan view of, 83–85
 - religion in
 - innovative resources for teaching, 91–94
 - methods of presenting, 85–91
 - treating adequately, 77
 - religious interpretations of, 80–85, 96*n*
 - resources for teaching, 76*n*
- History-Social Science Framework for California Public Schools*, 65
 - and changes in textbooks, 78
- holidays. See religious holidays
- homosexuality, teaching about controversy over, 193
- honesty, as universal value, 188
- Hunter, James Davison, 5, 102

- idolatry, definition of, 3
- immanence vs. transcendence, 143, 149
- immigration to United States, importance of religion to, 89
- implementation of community consensus, 30
- incarnational theology, 149
- inclusion of religious faiths
 - in curriculum, influence as criteria for, 48
 - in existing courses, 44–45
 - importance of, 8

- as issue in world religions course, 172
- individualism, as issue in civics, 102
- indoctrination
 - vs. education, 184–185
 - education as, 42–44
 - fear of, 63
- Industrial Revolution, and changing view of economics, 108
- influence, as criteria for inclusion of religions, 48
- informed empathy in study of religion, 50–51, 86, 175–176
- inhibiting and denigrating religion, 18
- integration of religion and science, 138–139
- integrity, as universal value, 188
- intelligent design in nature, as issue, 158–159
- International Reading Association (IRA), 118
- “invisible hand” economics, 106
- IRA. See International Reading Association
- Islam
 - criticisms of Westernization, 108
 - emphasized dimensions in, 50
 - important issues in, 85–86
- Islamic Society of North America, 36
- issues, 177
 - about Bible courses, 167–168
 - in arts, 120–126
 - in civics, 99–104, 104–105
 - in economics, 107–113
 - legal, in teaching of religion, 6
 - in literature, 120–126
 - in science, 151–153
 - social
 - of competition, 106
 - in economics’ textbooks, 106–107
- Jackson, Jesse, 102
- Jastrow, Robert, 144–145
- Jefferson, Thomas, 105
- Jesus, in textbooks, 89
- Jews, prejudice against, 67–68
- John Paul II, 111, 112, 143, 151
- Judaism
 - creation in, 146, 162*n*
 - emphasized dimensions in, 50
- judgment, teaching of, 157–158
- justice, and economics, 116*n*
- King, Jr., Martin Luther, 90, 99, 103, 105
- Kingdom of God, as goal of Christianity, 102
- language, as medium of revelation, 123
- Leo XIII, 112
- “Letter from the Birmingham Jail” (King, Jr.), 103
- liberal education
 - and choice between moral systems, 185–186
 - and fairness, 35
 - importance of religion to, 8–9, 39–44
 - liberal and conservative aspects of, 187
 - as moral education, 187–188
 - nature of, 43
- liberally educated people, characteristics of, 37–38
- liberal state, religious liberty and, as issue, 99–100
- liberals vs. conservatives
 - and culture wars, 5
 - on historical study of Bible, 179*n*
 - in Jewish and Christian traditions, 170
 - on meaning of modern art, 124
 - on moral and political issues, 102
 - on religion, 1
 - on science of creation, 154
- liberty, importance of debate for, 88
- life
 - making sense of, as goal of moral education, 198
 - origins of (See creation)

“Lines Composed Above Tintern Abbey” (Wordsworth), 122

literary criticism

current state of, 132*n*

as subject vs. discipline, 120–121

literature

children’s, and teaching of religion, 73–74

controversy over definition of, 130

distribution of, in schools, 20

guidelines for teaching, 130–132

insights gained from, 187

issues in, 120–126

modern, historical context of, 125

as moral exercise, 184

popular, insidiousness of, 125–126

religious broad scope of, 2

importance of teaching, 192–193

religious interpretations of, 121

resources for teaching, 76*n*

secularization of, 131, 132*n*

standards for teaching of, 117–119

Literature: World Masterpieces, 128

live religions, study of, 176–177

Mann, Horace, 169

marginalization of religion, 25, 42, 47

market, as dominant ideology, 113–114

Marxism, 113

Maslow, Abraham, 189

Massachusetts Bay Colony, 84, 99 material culture, as dimension of religion, 49–50

materialism, as issue in economics, 108

meaning in life

as goal of moral education, 198

and religion, 124–125

meetings, religious, on school property, 20

Middle East, conceptions of history in, 85

Mill, John Stuart, 53

minor religions, inclusion of, 48

miracles, 143

teaching of, 40

modern curriculum, marginalization of religion by, 25

modern era in religion importance of studying, 90

neglect of, 80

Molly’s Pilgrim (Cohen), 74

moral education

defining nature of, 181–183

liberal education as, 187–188

and literature and arts, 131–132

place of Bible in, 190 place of religion in, 188–190

proposed theory of, 185–188

purposes of, 197–198

selecting system to teach, 186–187

as training, 184

without religion, vapidness of, 189

morality

Christianity as ultimate basis of, 102

as habit, 192

introducing into sex education, 191–192

and politics, as issue in civics, 101–102

vs. values, 191–192

in world religions, 199*n*

moral relativism, vs. pluralism, 53–55

moral systems

learning about, 186

whose to teach, 186–187

moral theology, 199*n*–200*n*

moral theory and religion, history of, 200*n*

multiculturalism, 53–54

disparagement of Western values, 87

- ignoring of religion by, 86–88
- textbooks on, and religion, 105
- Murray, John Courtney, 90
- music
 - religious, 129
 - resources for teaching, 76*n*
- music education, as analogy for religious education, 51
- Muslim culture. See Islam

- naked public schools, 16
- naked public square, 102
- narratives, as principle of order, 40
- National Academy of Sciences, 138
- National Association of Biology Teachers, on evolution, 142
- National Association of Evangelicals, 16, 36
- National Center for History in the Schools, standards for history, 64
- National Content Standards in Economics*, 105–106
- National Council for the Social Sciences (NCSS), 63
- National Council for the Social Studies, 37
 - guidelines for study of religion, 46
- National Council of Churches, 36
- National Council of Teachers of English (NTCE), 118
- National Council on Bible Curriculum in Public Schools, 169
- National Education Association, statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18
- National School Boards Association, 36
 - statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18
- National Science Education Standards*, 139–141, 144, 160
 - on ecology, 151
- National Standards for Arts Education*, 119–120
- National Standards for Civics and Government*, 98
- National Standards for History* (NCHS), 64
 - and inclusion of religion, 79–80
- national unity. See unity
- Native American religions, and nature, 150
- Nativity pageants, recommendations on, 71–72
- naturalism, 137
- natural law, 99, 103
- nature. See also ecology
 - exploitation of, and science, 148
 - intelligent design in, as issue, 158–159
 - and religion, 148–151
 - and Western religious tradition, 148
- Nazism, 3
- NCHS. See National Center for History in the Schools
- NCSS. See National Council for the Social Sciences
- NEA, 36
- neoclassical economics, as issue, 109–110
- Neuhaus, Richard John, 102, 115*n*
- neutrality
 - as essence of Establishment Clause, 18–19, 153–155
 - requirement for teachers, 26
 - of state, Supreme Court interpretation of, 24–25
- New Age religions, 3
- New Consensus, 66
 - curriculum developed around, 36–37
 - grounding of, in Abington v. Schempp, 46
 - principles of, 9–10, 37
 - schools envisioned by, 203
 - on study of religion in elementary school, 63–64
- New Criticism, 120
- New York City, Children of the Rainbow curriculum, 194
- Niebuhr, Reinhold, 90
- non-teaching hours, religious acts during, 26–27
- North Carolina, training for teachers in, 94
- NTCE. See National Council of Teachers of English

- obedience to state, as issue in civics, 103–104
- objectivity in teaching religion, difficulty of defining, 47
- On Common Ground CD-ROM, 92–93
- One World, Many Religions: The Ways We Worship* (Osborne), 74
- opting in, 23
- Origin of Species* (Darwin), 140, 141

origin of universe. See also big bang; creation national science standards on, 147–148
Osborne, Mary Pope, 74
Oxford University Press, “Religion in American Life” series, 92–93 parental permission, requesting, 23 parental requests, accommodation of. See accommodation parents

objections of, to study of religions, 69 resources for, 76
responsibilities of, 21–23
rights of, 21–23
A Parent’s Guide to Religion in the Public Schools, 19, 19n
Peacocke, Arthur, 139
People for the American Way, statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18 performances. See artistic performances personhood, changing definition of, 156 perspective, importance of providing to students, 37 philosophical naturalism, 158 philosophical questions, importance of addressing, 37–38
Pius XII, 144–145
pluralism
as issue in civics, 103
vs. moral relativism, 53–55, 196
Pluralism Project at Harvard Univ., 93 policies
adoption of, for teaching religion, 56–57 clear, importance of, 178 political parties, neutrality among, 42–43 political pressure to teach religion, 77 politics and morality, as issue in civics, 101–102
Polkinghorne, John, 147
Pontifical Academy of Science, 144 postmodern criticism, 121
postmodernism, and religion, 163n poverty, as issue in economics, 110–111 prayer in schools, Supreme Court on, 20 primary sources, importance of using, 53, 159
Principle of Cultural Location and Weight, 49
Process theologians, 143 progressive religion, 141–142 progress of religions, as issue in world religions course, 174–175 promotion of religion in classrooms, and Constitution, 27 PTA, national, statement on religion in schools, 19 public. See community public education, as issue in civics, 104 public policy disputes, fair treatment of all in, 33 public policy issues, as subject in civics, 104 public schools. See also California public schools; civil public schools future of, 28
hostility to faith, 16
and importance of taking religion seriously, 202–203 public spaces, absence of religion in, 115n Puritans conception of history, 83–85 inaccurate portrayals of, 83–84 reality

as narrative, in religious traditions, 123 spiritual dimension of, 135
Reconstruction, importance of religion to, 89
redistribution of wealth by the state, 110 Reformation, effect on models of government, 100 relationships between religions, importance of, 52 relativism, vs. pluralism, 53–55 conveying to students, 196 relevance of religion, 2 religion. See also world religions Constitutional requirements for teaching, 154
coverage of, in textbooks, 88–89
in curriculum
placement of, 44–46

- reasons for absence of, 5–8
 - reasons for including, 166
- definition of, 2–4
- in history
 - importance of, 38–39
 - innovative resources for teaching, 91–94
 - methods of presenting, 85–91
- importance to liberal education, 8–9, 35–36, 39–46, 202–203
- live, study of, 176–177
- scholarly works on, 92–93
 - lack of, v
- and search for meaning, 124–125
- secular, 3–4
- secular criticism of, 52–53
- teaching of, 23–25
 - guidelines for, 95ⁿ
 - and legal issues, 6
 - reasons for lack of, 201–202
- understanding from inside and out, 50–52
- Religion and American Education: Rethinking a National Dilemma* (Nord), v
- Religion and the Curriculum* (1988), 36
- Religion in American History: What to Teach and How* (Haynes), vi
- Religion in American Life* series, 92–93, 94ⁿ–95ⁿ
- religion in schools conference (1994), 16–17
- “Religion in the Public School Curriculum: Questions and Answers” (1988), 36
- Religion in the Public Schools: A Joint Statement of Current Law* (1995), 19
 - availability of, 19ⁿ
- religious exercises, required, 24
- religious experience
 - bias of science against, 40
 - as dimension of religion, 49–50
 - importance of exploring, 85
- religious experience, as issue in world religions course, 172–173
- religious explanations, obligation to include, 39–43
- religious freedom. See freedom of religion
- Religious Freedom Restoration Act (RFRA), 21–22
- religious holidays, 69–73
 - calendars of, 76ⁿ
- “Religious Holidays in the Public Schools: Questions and Answers,” 70
- Religious Liberty, Public Education, and the Future of American Democracy: A Statement of Principles* (1995), 17–18, 29
 - parents’ rights and responsibilities in, 21
- religious literature, importance of teaching, 192–193
- religious pluralism in United States, 179ⁿ–180ⁿ
- religious requests for accommodation. See accommodation
- Religious Right, 2. See also conservatives
- religious schools, 16
- religious studies courses, 89
 - required, 24–25
- religious symbols in classroom, 70–71
- religious texts, as literature, 118–119
- religious thinking, vs. scientific thinking, 51
- religious views, personal, teacher’s freedom to express, 26–27
- required religious exercises, 24
- required religious studies, 24–25
- Rerum Novarum* (Leo XIII), 112
- respect, importance of, in debate, 29, 31–32
- RFRA, Religious Freedom Restoration Act, 21–22
- rights
 - importance of respect for, 88
 - of students, freedom of religion and, 19–21
- “rights, responsibilities, and respect” concept, 29, 91–92
- risks
 - of not teaching religion, 28
 - of religion in schools, 15–16, 27
- ritual, as dimension of religion, 49–50
- Robertson, Pat, 102
- role-playing, as educational tool, 73
- Romanticism, and creativity, 124
- romantic movement, religious dimensions of, 122
- Ruether, Rosemary Radford, 150

sacramental theology, 149

- sacred history, 81
- sacred narratives, as dimension of religion, 49–50
- sacred public schools, 16
- sacred rituals, trivializing of, 73
- sacred vs. secular, as blurred category, 4
- Sagan, Carl, 136
- Sallman, Warner, 126
- Schleiermacher, Friedrich, 122
- Schoenberger, Chana, 67
- scholarship
 - and context of religion, 52
 - modern, and Bible, 170
- school board
 - pitfalls faced by, 27
 - task force on common ground, 28–30
- schooling, as moral enterprise, 182
- schools
 - absence of religion from, history of, 7
 - with one dominant religion, 16
 - secular, 16
 - as training ground in First Amendment rights, 88
- school vouchers, 2, 103
- Schumpeter, Joseph, 108
- science
 - boundaries of, expanding, 160–161
 - as competitor to religion, 5
 - conception of reality, vs. religion, 4
 - conceptual biases of, 40, 135, 154–155
 - and creation, 136
 - cultural determination of, 139
 - as discipline or subject, 156
 - and exploitation of nature, 148
 - issues in teaching of, 151–153
 - limitations of, importance of presenting, 160
 - national standards for, 139–141
 - and religion
 - literature on, 161*n*–162*n*
 - possible views of relationship, 137–139
 - triumph of, 7
- science education
 - as analogy for religious education, 51
 - constitutional constraints on, 153–155
- scientific materialism, 137
- scientific revolution, effect of, 122, 134–137
- scientific thinking, vs. religious thinking, 51
- scientism, 137
- scripture
 - influence on literature, 120
 - nature and selection of, as issue in world religions course, 173–174
 - reading of
 - Jewish and Christian differences in, 170
 - as literature, 127
- secondary sources
 - Bible and, 170
 - use of, in teaching religion, 53
- Second Vatican Council, impact of, 90
- secular criticism of religion, 52–53
- secular humanism as functional religion of schools, 6, 41–42
- secularization
 - of art and literature, 131, 132*n*
 - as issue in arts, 124–125
 - of marketplace, as issue in economics, 107–108
 - of nature, 148
 - of Western civilization, 155–156
- secular readings, vs. secular context of readings, 165
- secular religions, 3–4
- secular treatments, bias of, 177
- secular vs. sacred, as blurred category, 4
- self-interest, in economics, 106, 109–110
- separation of church and state, 5–6
 - controversy over, 97
 - as issue in civics, 101

- origin of, 99–100
- sex education
 - liberal education and, 195
 - need for various perspectives in, 193
 - relevance of religion to, 190–196
- sexuality, in world religions, 199*n*
- Smart, Ninian, 49, 50, 177
- Smith, Adam, 106, 109, 110
- Smith, Wilfred Cantwell, 127
- Snowline, California, schools in, 32–33
- social contract theory of government, 100
- social Darwinism, 141
- Social Gospel movement, effect of, 112
- socialization, 181
 - vs. education, 184–185
- social justice, importance of teaching, 197
- social science, and morality, 192
- Song of Songs, as literature, 126–127
- spiritual dimension of reality, 135
- spirituality, definition of, 3
- stakeholders, inclusion of, in finding common ground, 29–30
- Stalin, Joseph, 88
- standards
 - for arts, 119–120
 - for cultural diversity, 118
 - for ecology, 151
 - for English language arts, 117–119
 - for history, 64, 79–80
 - inclusion in textbooks, 78–80
 - for literature, 117–119
 - for science, 139–141, 160
 - on origin of universe, 147–148
 - for social sciences curriculum, 63–64
 - for textbooks in civics, 98–99
 - for textbooks in economics, 105–107
- Standards for the English Language Arts*, 117–119
- state, as dominant ideology, 113–114
- Statement of Principles*. See Religious Liberty, Public Education, and the Future of American Democracy: A Statement of Principles (1995)
- stewardship of nature, 149
- Stoeger, William, 145
- subjects, vs. disciplines, in public schools, 41–42
- suffering of others, as key moral issue, 197
- Supreme Court of United States, 18
 - on Bible in schools, 126
 - on constitutional constraints on science education, 153–154
 - on courses in religion, 164–165
 - definition of religion, 2–3
 - on Establishment Clause, 101
 - on parental requests for accommodation, 22
 - on religion in schools, 24, 34*n*
 - and Religious Freedom Restoration Act, 21
 - rulings on religion by
 - in 1960s, 19–20
 - teaching of, 194
- symbols, religious, in classroom, 70–71
- sympathy vs. empathy, 50
- Taoism, emphasized dimensions in, 50
- teachers
 - biases of, 44–45, 55
 - awareness of, 50
 - need to educate, 203–204
 - preparing for teaching religion, 55–57, 91–92
 - importance of, 178
 - requiring, 37
 - resources for, 180*n*
 - and religious acts during non-teaching hours, 26–27
 - responsibilities of, for balanced presentation, 159–160
 - role of, 26–27
- teaching about religion, vs. teaching religion, 46–55
- technology, as issue, 152

- textbooks
 - balanced, creating markets for, 57
 - in biology, alternatives to evolution in, _144
 - in civics, standards for, 98–99
 - in economics
 - social issues in, 106–107
 - standards for, 105–107
 - inclusion of religion in, 88–89
 - standards for, 78–80
 - multicultural, and religion, 105
 - in science
 - and origin of universe, 147–148
 - religion in, 140
 - supplements to, 92–93
 - and treatment of religion, 36
- theologians
 - ecofeminist, 150
 - exile of, from public schools, 43
- theological concepts, importance of exploring, 85
- theological developments, importance of studying, 90–91
- theology
 - effect of existentialism on, 124
 - moral, 199*n*–200*n*
- theory vs. fact, distinguishing between, in science education, 157–159
- thinking, religious vs. scientific, 51
- 3 Rs project (Georgia), 91–92
- Tillich, Paul, 3, 4
- tolerance, overdoing of, 53–54
- training of children, 181
 - vs. education, 184–185
- transcendence, vs. immanence, 143, 149
- trivializing of sacred rituals, 73
- truth, vs. good science, 157
- two-worlds approach to science and religion, 138

- uncritical assumptions in curriculum, 41
- Union of American Hebrew Congregations, statement on First Amendment rights, 17–18
- United States
 - as Christian nation, 84
- United States (continued)
 - contemporary, understanding religion in, 98
 - culture of irony in, 125
 - foreign policy of, and imposition of Western ideals, 103
 - future of, 28
 - as most religiously diverse nation, 68
 - as religious nation, 1–2, 7, 68
- United States history
 - current, importance of religion to, 90
 - guidelines for teaching, 95*n*
 - importance of religion to, 87
 - Religion in American Life* series, 92–93
 - textbooks, and coverage of religion, 79
- unity, and religion in schools, 7
- universe, design in, 145
- Utah, program for training of teachers in religion, 92
- utilitarian morality, 198
 - values, vs. morality, 191–192
- values clarification programs, failure of, 183–184
- Vanderbilt University, First Amendment Center, 91
- violence, surrounding religious diversity, worldwide, 68
- Vitz, Paul, 73–74

- Wake County, North Carolina, schools, 171
- wealth, as issue in economics, 110–111
- Western civilization, secularization of, 155–156
- Western ideals, imposition of, in foreign policy, 103
- Western values, multiculturalism's disparagement of, 87
- Whitehead, Alfred North, 143, 149
- Wicomico County, Maryland, schools in, 30
- Williams, Ray, 93
- Williams, Roger, 32, 105
- Williamsburg Charter*, golden rule of civil life, _68

Williamsville, New York, schools in, 61–62
Winthrop, John, 83, 84, 99, 105
Wordsworth, William, 122 work
 as calling, 108, 111
 ethics of, as issue in economics, 111
World Bank, and imposition of Western ideals, 103
World Council of Churches, 151 world cultures, importance of understanding, _48 world religions guidelines on teaching, 96*n* literature on, 179*n*
 major issues in, 172–176
 morality in, 199*n*
 sexuality in, 199*n*
worldviews differences in, 40–41, 189
 and study of live religion, 176–177
Wright, T. R., 122
Wuthnow, Robert, 108